Morihiko Nakahara, Music Director

Young People's Concerts

Tuesday & Wednesday, February 23-24, 2010
9:45 & 11:15 a.m.

Koger Center for the Arts, Columbia

For grades K-6

The doctors will see you now!

You won't see any lab coats when Music Director Morihiko Nakahara and emcee Joe "Mr. Knozit" Pinner dissect the distinct sections that make up a symphony orchestra: strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion, and then put them back together!

Music from Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, Carmen by Bizet, music from Harry Potter, the Dvorak New World Symphony and more highlight this 45-minute performance, which will also feature a surprise guest conductor: a student selected at random from the audience to conduct the orchestra through Sousa's Washington Post March.

Admission: $3.50 per person. Groups of 200+ are $3 per person!
See order form on facing page.

Other Programs

Adopt-A-Musician For students of all ages

Put a professional SCP musician in your classroom four times a year. Adopt-A-Musician's goal is to create excited and informed audience members by giving students close interaction with a musician who returns to your classroom throughout the year. There is a one-time $345 fee payable to the SCP. All students attend an SCP rehearsal and receive one free ticket to an SCP concert during the 2009/2010 season!

Carnival of the Animals For grades K-3

Have the SCP perform in your school! You will be provided with a recording and information to help inspire students to create visual art or poetry that will later be displayed during the concert you arrange at your school. Available to schools in Richland and Lexington counties only. Please call for pricing and technical requirements.

Peter and the Wolf For students of all ages

It's the children's tale you remember, but with two howling good twists! The orchestra comes to you and you can choose between English narration and a bilingual presentation, as developed by Maria and Maurice Hood. Please call for pricing and technical requirements.

Call or e-mail Audience Services Director Jason Rapp for information on these programs:

Learning Through Participation

All South Carolina Philharmonic educational programs involve active student participation, interaction and engagement. The older the age group, the greater the depth of the educational instruction:

What is going on in the music?

How are the instruments working together to form an idea?

How are expectations fulfilled or thwarted by composition?

Through active listening, students lock into the excitement of sound!

MORiHiKO 2.0 premium edition

2009/2010 Season

The Midlands' warm welcome to Music Director Morihiko Nakahara was rewarded with a season of electrifying performances that translated to rave reviews and full houses.

The 2009/2010 season follows with Morihiko 2.0 Premium Edition as the SCP continues redefining what the symphonic experience can be. Maestro Nakahara's second season has the classic, the eclectic and everything in between in the seven-concert Masterworks Series and an exciting special-event concert that brings 2009 Grammy winners Béla Fleck and The Flecktones to Columbia for "Jingle All the Way" on Dec. 1. Student & group rates available! Call 803.251.2222 or visit www.capitoltickets.com.

Our Kids-to-Concerts program provides FREE concert tickets to underserved students and their families. Call 803.254.PHIL (7445) for more information.
